Turn-Key Newsletter Service

Now you can have a newsletter created, designed, formatted, written, and delivered to your contacts without any of the work.

"Imagine, just for a minute..."

- Staying in contact with your clients, customers, prospects, colleagues, peers, & associates on a consistent basis without having to do anything!
- Having prospects and clients contacting YOU!
- Having your marketing put on auto-pilot!
- People contacting you to say Thank You!
- Not having to research, learn, or keep up with the best, most effective marketing strategies!
- Having the ability to add new content to your website every month... without becoming a writer!
- Not needing to learn anything new!
- And still having a powerful marketing strategy!

Now imagine having this done for you!

The most efficient and effective ways to communicate with customers, prospects, clients, candidates, associates, and employees is to share information via a newsletter. Effective communication is critical in relationships and vital to success. With a compelling newsletter, you will have more opportunities for exposure and increased business.

The cost of our newsletter service is exceptionally low, while at the same time providing professional quality and content. We provide the highest value content anywhere! Your prospects, clients, candidates, associates, family, and friends will enjoy reading your newsletter and in fact will start looking forward to your next issue.

Client Comment:

High praise for Sorrell Associates Customized Newsletter Service!

Our mentoring clients have greatly benefited from the timely and relevant newsletter topics that we offer each month.

We not only use this service as an energizer for our mentoring partnerships, but it has also become a clever marketing tool as well.

It is not unusual for TTC, Inc. to receive a request for additional training as a result of an interesting article that was published in our customized monthly newsletter.

A must have for any successful organization!

Kathy Wentworth Drahosz, President, The Training Connection, Inc. (TTC)
